

EDU Group and UBTECH Conduct Employee Sharing Session with Hong Kong Productivity Council

Promoting Knowledge Exchange and Professional Development

(Hong Kong, December 16, 2025) – EDU Group, in collaboration with UBTECH, conducted an employee sharing session for the Hong Kong Productivity Council, aimed at fostering knowledge exchange and professional development within the organization. During the session, participants explored workplace practices, innovation strategies, and approaches to talent development, engaging in interactive discussions that provided insights beyond their regular professional roles. The session offered an opportunity for staff to gain broader perspectives and practical ideas for future organizational initiatives. Michael Tam, Chief Brand Officer of UBTECH, attended the session, emphasizing the value of collaboration and open dialogue in supporting sustainable growth. Representatives from EDU Group also expressed appreciation for the opportunity to engage with the Productivity Council and explore avenues for ongoing cooperation. The employee sharing session reflects EDU Group's commitment to supporting professional learning, cross-sector collaboration, and community engagement.

Date: December 16, 2025

Location: Hong Kong Productivity Council, Hong Kong